DECLARATION OF NANCY TILLET IN
SUPPORT OF PLAINTIFF'S RESPONSE TO SUMMARY JUDGMENT

I, Nancy Tillett, am over the age of 18 and competent to testify in this matter.

The day that my house was raided by the Bremerton Police Department, I had been arrested, handcuffed, and placed under an tarped area covered by a large tarp like tent. My father- in-law, George Tillett, Sr. was brought under the tarp a little while later. I saw his hands were bruised and I exclaimed, "What happened to your hands!" Mr. Tillett was obviously upset, he was crying, something he rarely did, and he responded, "They did it." I understood they to mean the Bremerton Police. I then asked, "are you okay?" He responded that his hands and stomach hurt. We sat until I was separated from George and taken to a police car a short time later.
